

Name: _____

What's Your Problem?

Solving problems is something we do most of our lives. We will usually be more successful when we take ownership to solve our problems appropriately. To do so would mean not to judge or blame others.

Tell about a problem you had: _____

Was it solved appropriately? Why or why not? _____

Tell about another problem you have had: _____

What type of solutions are there for this problem? Name 2: _____

Why do some solutions fail? _____

Why is it important to remain positive when solving problems? _____
